

MUTT AND JEFF—Jeff Is Certainly a Conscientious Little Guy, Is He Not?

JEFF, I KNOW HOW YOU CAN GET AN OVERCOAT. THERE'S AN OLD GUY WHO LIVES IN THAT OLD WHITE HOUSE DOWN THE STREET, WHO ALWAYS HANGS HIS OVERCOAT OUT ON THE CLOTHES LINE IN THE YARD EVERY NIGHT TO AIR OFF. JUST WALK DOWN AND COP IT.

GO AHEAD AND TRY IT. TAKE A WHISKBROOM ALONG AND IF YOUR CONSCIENCE BOTHERS YOU START TO BRUSH IT OFF AND TAKE IT BACK AND SAY IT FELL OFF THE LINE AND YOU WERE SIMPLY BRUSHING THE DUST OFF.

OH, I COULDN'T! MY CONSCIENCE WOULD BOTHER ME AND I WOULD WANT TO PUT IT BACK AND WOULDN'T KNOW HOW.

GET ME A WHISKBROOM

State Football Championship Will Be Decided Here Saturday

KENDALL COLLEGE MEETS THE AGGIES

Not a Jot's Difference Between the Two Aggregations on Paper.

BOTH ARE STRONG

Have Met Twice and Visitors Have Won and Tied; Up to Local College.

The football championship of Oklahoma will be decided between noon and sunset on Association park gridiron Saturday afternoon. In that brief period history will be recorded, hopes will be crushed, laurels will be snatched and valiant deeds will be done.

Who will be the winner? Every football follower in the state is asking this question, is weighing the two machines and finding that there is not a tossup between them.

Kendall college of Tulsa, conqueror of the once haughty Sooners, looks good to about 50 per cent of the best experts, while Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical college looks good to the other half. It's even money any way one looks at it.

Have Met Twice.

Twice have these aggregations faced each other on the sod. Two years ago A. & M. defeated the Kendallites by a score of 7 to 0. Last year a 0 to 0 deadlock was the final. By the law of balance the local warriors should win by a score of 7 to 0 of course, but this law is an unknown quantity in sport circles.

Kendall is 50 per cent stronger than it was last year. So is the Aggie machine. Kendall has men who are sure of position on the all-star machine. So has the Aggie machine. So has the Aggie machine. So has the Aggie machine.

And so there you are. Tulsa college coaches admit that they are far from being optimistic.

NOEMAN, Okla., Nov. 1.—Oklahoma Sooners today were considerably encouraged to hope for a victory over Kansas at Lawrence next Saturday when Joe Fields, veteran end who has been out of the lineup for nearly a month, because of a "chasing hips," appeared in his old place at left end to strengthen the line. Graham Johnson, quarterback, who was knocked unconscious by a collision with Quarterback Stumppert in the Missouri game last week, is back calling signals. All of the other regulars are in good shape and it is probable that with the single change of line at end, the same team which lost to Missouri last week will line up against Kansas.

VENISON CUTS LIVING COST

Grant County Residents Stock Up With Deer Meat.

CANYON CITY, Ore., Nov. 1.—Deer is either plentiful in Grant county this season or the hunters of the county are really good marksmen. Since the season opened many persons have gone in search of venison to help reduce the high cost of living.

Because of the large number of deer reported killed through the county it is said sales of the meat dealers have been cut down materially.

HAMANN MAY GET CHANCE AT TITLE

Johnny Kilbane Will Meet Winner of Fight in Kansas City Tonight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 1.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, sent in his signed consent to a set of articles that he will meet the winner of the Benny Chavez-Predley Hamann 12-round battle, scheduled for the patrons of the Academy Athletic club of this city tonight. With Kilbane ready to battle the winner, patrons of the boxing game are looking forward to one of the best scraps of the year between the crack Mexican whirlwind and that slashing little gloveman of the Pacific coast.

Kansas City fight fraternity has had some corking fights in years gone by, but from the point of science, courage and bulldog fighting the battle between this middleweight sensation, Freddy Hamann, and Mexico's greatest ringman, Benny Chavez, should surpass anything that has been presented to the fight fans of this locality.

Both Chavez and Hamann are shooting towards the top of the featherweight ladder, and the outcome of the battle between the boys will be watched keenly in the east. Both are conceded a great chance to defeat Johnny Kilbane for the featherweight title to the ringside of 122 pounds at which he won his title from Ace Attoll. Hamann and Chavez are natural 122-pounders. Kilbane has been growing of late and will have to do a lot of hard work to come down to the weight at which he annexed his present title.

Freddy Hamann hails from San Francisco, the town that presented the marvelous Abe Attoll to the glove world. The crack little Hamann says it would be the height of his ambition to defeat Johnny Kilbane and return the featherweight crown to the Pacific coast, where it rightfully belongs.

Large crowds have been gathering around the training quarters of the sensational featherweight prospects lately. Hamann had to put in extra seating capacity to take care of his training crowds. Chavez switched his training quarters to Convention hall in order that the Mexican colony could have the chance to crowd in and watch his workout with his trainers.

Jimmy Hurst, promoter of the match, says he has set aside several blocks of seats at the Academy Athletic club, where the mill will be thrashed out Thursday night, so that his out-of-town patrons can get a glimpse of the mill, the winner of which will get a battle for the 122-pound crown.

Shakeup Due in Ball Commission

President Ben Johnson Admits That Complexion May Be Changed Right Shortly.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—President B. B. Johnson of the American league, in a statement tonight, admitted that "probably will be a change in the complexion of the national baseball commission."

The statement was issued after two afternoon newspapers had quoted Mr. Johnson as saying that August Herrmann, chairman of the commission, would be deposed. Immediate denial of the statement was made. President Johnson, however, said that certain club owners of the American league are opposed to "too much National league in the composition of the national commission."

Mr. Herrmann is president of the Cincinnati club of the National league and has been chairman of the national commission since the formation of that body. He was in conference with President Johnson here last week.

The commission is made up of Johnson, Herrmann and John K. Tener, president of the National league.

Sapulpa Meets Chandler.

SAPULPA, Okla., Nov. 1.—The Sapulpa high school team will go against the Chandler high next Saturday afternoon on the local gridiron. The Chandler team has the reputation of being the heaviest team in this section of the state with the exception of the Tulsa high and have been winning nearly all the games so far this season. Sapulpa will have the same line-up as that used last Friday against Bristow, when the latter won the game by the score of 25 to 28. The Sapulpa and Tulsa teams will play on November 17.

OLD RECORDS HOLD ON THE GRIDIRONS

Players Have Been Shooting at Marks for Years Without Avail.

ONLY FEW ONES NOW

New Drop Kick Record of 63 Yards Was Established Last Fall.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Every season—this is no exception—the new stars of the football firmament shoot at some of the records that have been made in the other days of the gridiron sport. Football has progressed in the last few years. Everything has been done to speed up the game and bring about the greatest ability in every player. Yet only a few of the marks set by the old-timers have been equaled. All of which would indicate that the boys of a generation ago knew quite a lot about this up-and-coming pastime.

The drop-kickers have a new mark to beat at this season. It was made by Mark E. Ryan of Lakota, Wyo., who drove a dropped ball over the goal posts from the 62-yard line in the game against Northern normal last fall. This achievement of Payne's equaled the 72-year-old mark of 62 yards made by Pat O'Lea of Wisconsin against Northwestern. Payne's kick wasn't of the fluke order. It was a clean shot that sent the ball well over the cross bar and directly in the center, although he shot from a different angle.

Three men are tied for third place honors in the drop-kicking line, with a credit of 55 yards. They are J. V. Gowing of Harvard, who made his mark against Princeton in 1887; J. E. Duffy (Michigan, 1891), against Cornell; O. W. Wiley (Stanford, Pa., normal), against Wyoming.

Haydell's Record Remains. J. T. Haydell of Princeton made a 63-yard placement kick against Yale in 1882, which is the record for that sort of kicking. J. P. Davis of Dickinson placed-kicked 53 yards against Pittsburgh in 1905 while the third place honors are held by W. G. Crowell (Swarthmore, 1904) and Fred Bonnett (Utah, 1904), who booted the placed ball for 55 yards.

The longest touchdown run was made by G. S. McCaa of Lafayette on October 15, 1909, while playing against Southeastern. McCaa's team got the ball on downs a few inches from its own line. The ball was passed to McCaa back of his own line and he ran the entire length of the field—110 yards—for a touchdown. This record probably will last for all time, as the rules since have been changed which limit the length of the field to 100 yards. C. C. Grey of Oberlin ran 103 yards through the Cornell line on October 10, 1908, while third place is given to Eberhart of Indiana, who made a 108-yard run against Iowa in 1912. Walter Ekersall's 106-yard sprint for Chicago on November 25, 1901, following the Viscum kick-off, gives him fourth place among the long-run boys.

Across the Field. James De Hart of Pittsburgh carved for himself a niche in the hall of fame last year. He got a punted ball five yards behind his own goal line and ran it through a broken field for a touchdown—the longest run that has been made since the 100-yard field has been in effect. John Farr of Washington and Lee, got a Cornell kick-off one yard back of his own line and immediately raced down and across the Ithaca goal line.

D. J. Murphy of the Christian league college holds the record for a run with an intercepted forward pass. He snatched the ball on his own goal line when it was passed by one of the southern Illinois college players and ran the full length of the field for a score.

COACH BAKER SHIFTS TEAM

Aitken Goes to Quarterback on Account of His Brainy Leadership.

WOODS AT THE END

Team in Great Shape to Meet Haskell Aggies Friday Afternoon.

When Tulsa high school meets the Haskell Aggies at Broken Arrow Friday it will be an entirely reconstructed machine, so Coach Baker declared last night. In anticipation of the contest, which is considered one of the hardest of the year, the local guide has shifted his whole team, closing out weak holes altogether, he believes.

The most pronounced shift is that of Harley Aitken from his place at end to quarterback. That this change was made is due entirely to the headwork displayed by the speedy athlete. His showing in games up to this time won him the honor. The whole team will be given into his hands. Coach Baker declared last night that defensively this would add much weight to the team, as Aitken has proved invaluable in tackling. He will now be used to back up the line. In Aitken's place at end Woods will be used.

Coach Baker does not believe that the tilters can down his bunch. Although possessed of lots of speed and some driving power, the Aggie machine has not shown itself of such a caliber to cause any quakes in the local camp. However, he is giving his men just the amount of practice necessary to place them in the best condition for the affair.
